All mutual fund money managed by Turov Investment Group Inc. is held by the mutual fund (Rydex). Turov Investment Group Inc. never takes possession of client funds.

While all client accounts within a given Program are managed identically, all accounts are in the client's individual name, and accounts are never comingled.

Account balances and position information is updated daily and may be viewed at any time, directly on Rydex Funds' website. Both Rydex and Turov Investment Group Inc. send out quarterly statements.

Funds may be added or withdrawn at any time, as per the Disclosure Document.

A not-so-obvious observation on the Page 7 chart may be as important as the performance itself. You will notice that throughout the year, when the Standard & Poor’s 500 advanced, Turov Investment Group Inc. Programs advanced about the same as the S&P. But when the S&P declined, Turov Investment Group Inc. Programs for the most part continued to advance! This was true even of Program A, which never goes short or takes an inverse fund position!

Past performance is not a guarantee of future performance; that is an indisputable fact. In our opinion, whether it is an indication of probable future performance is subject to debate, although the regulators want us to notify you that it is not an indication of probable future performance. So notified...
